Welcome, Everyone!

We are so delighted to be your hosts and hostesses for this "Gathering of the Stars".

We believe a picture truly is worth a thousand words ...we are excited about sharing our joy of dance in classes, in performances as professional dancers, and in the excitement of student graduations (shown in the picture on the left), as well as being instrumental in introducing the world of Middle Eastern dance through the talents of our terrific teachers.

Your decision to join us is so appreciated and we hope you enjoy your visit. Please contact one of our staff members for answers to any of your questions. We welcome you, our peers – teachers and students representing troupes with tremendous talent!

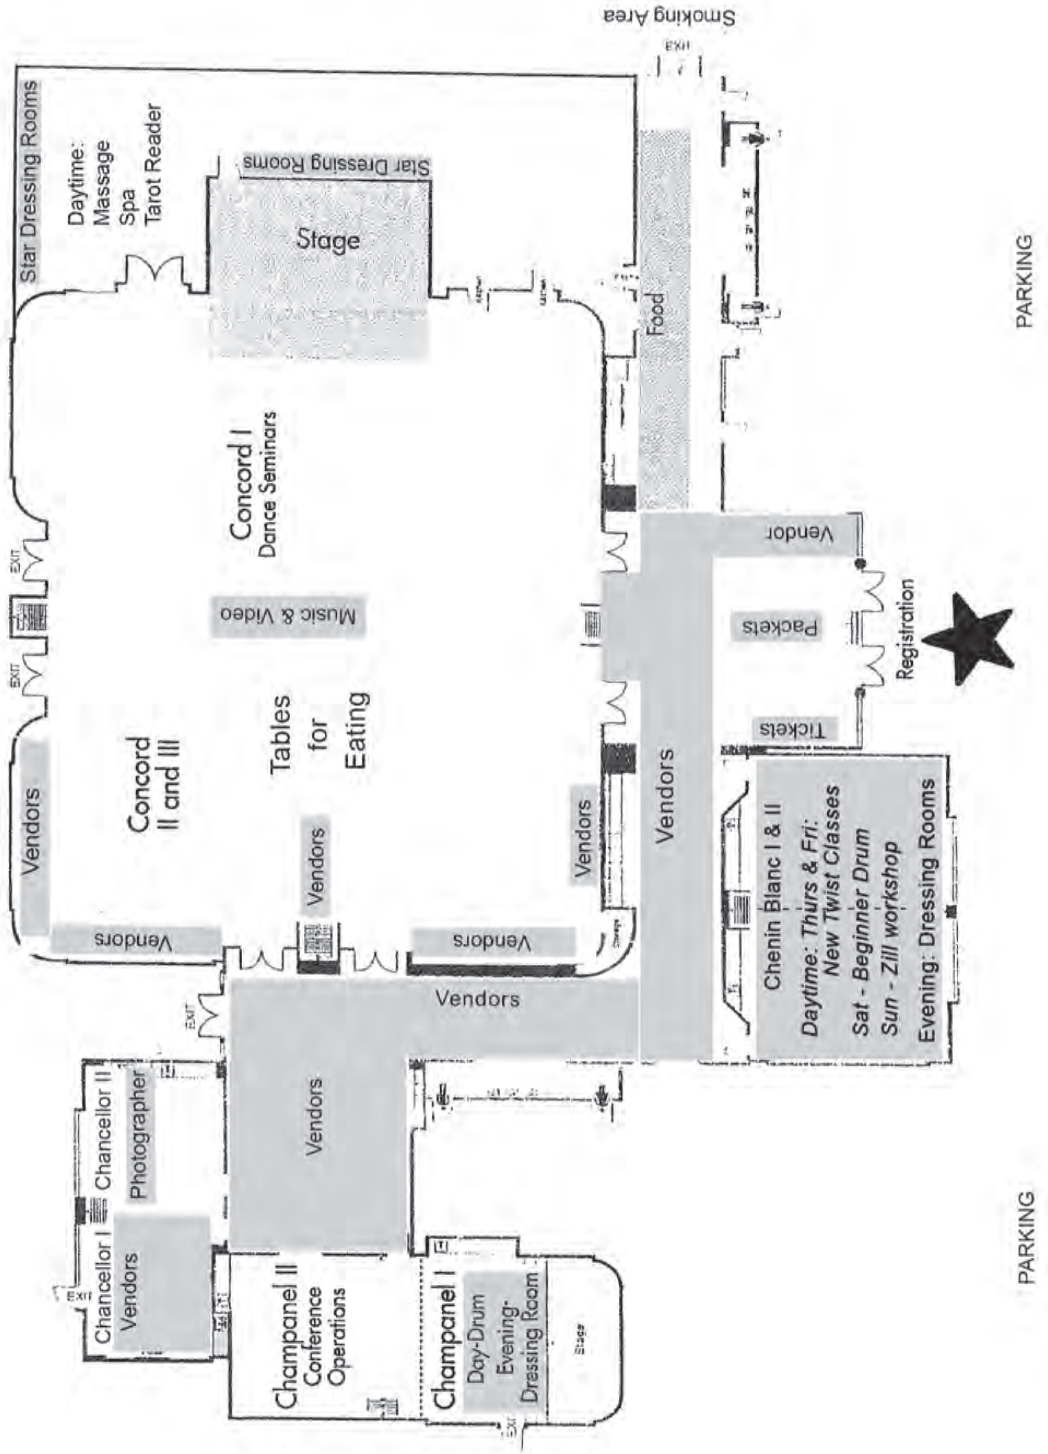

Thank you, and welcome to the families and friends of all the dancers attending the workshops and performing in the evening shows.

You are the wind beneath our wings.

Isis and Del, the Star Dancer staff and volunteers, welcome you to an exciting weekend featuring some of the very best instructors, musicians, vendors, and performers of Middle Eastern Dance and Music.

Special Guest Emcee

Amaya

An internationally acclaimed dance performer, Amaya has danced all her life and in many facets of show business.

She has traveled extensively throughout nineteen different countries teaching and performing. She produces the annual "Wise Woman Retreat" in New Mexico. As a performer, Amaya's dance is filled with passion and fire, tempered with elegance and flashes of fun.

Amy Sigil

Amy Sigil, director/choreographer of UNMATA and owner of Hot Pot Studio in Sacramento, CA, has been developing, teaching, and performing modern bellydance fusion for several years. Amy teaches workshops and performs at national and international events. Influenced by her studies in Bellydance, American Tribal Style, Hula, and Hip Hop, Amy brings you...SIGIL Style...not just a dance style; a life style.

Aubré

Aubré has been studying dance since she was a child growing up in Seattle. She is on faculty at California State University, Los Angeles, teaching accredited bellydance and pilates classes. Aubré performed, toured, and served as Assistant Director with Bellydance Superstars, and is currently the Artistic Director of the Lumina Bellydance Company. In addition, she teaches a full bellydance program at The Center of Worldance in Alhambra, California. Armed with exquisite technique and a pure soul, her dancing mesmerizes audiences everywhere.

Bozenka

Meaning "touched by God," the name Bozenka suits this performer, whose gift for the art of bellydancing transcends her

Cuban-Czech heritage, as she enralls audiences and inspires performers throughout the world. Her special teaching technique and her wonderful spirit make her workshops a fulfilling and motivating experience for all who attend. Bozenka is a well-rounded artist and a true bellydance Superstar!

Carmine Guida

Carmine says that teaching is his passion. His students compliment his lively and engaging teaching style and his ability to make complex technique and intricate rhythms easy to learn on the doumbek. He has taught all over the world and the United States. Carmine is also a member of the Middle Eastern fusion group "Djinn", "The Turkish Band Camp All Stars" and "Pangia".

Isis

Dancer, choreographer, teacher, director, costume designer, vendor, event sponsor, publisher and editor of The Belly Dance Chronicles...A Dancers Oasis magazine. Isis is also President of the Isis Foundation who sponsors the Wings of Isis and the Cultural Dance Team. Isis owns one of the largest belly dance studios in Texas with four performing companies. Her fun, energetic personality endears her to her students and fellow dancers as well.

Kaeshi

Kaeshi Chai was born in Brunei and brought up in New Zealand and Australia. She co-founded the New York-based dance company Bellyqueen with Amar Gamal in 1998. She also co-founded PURE (Public Urban Ritual Experiment), a healing dance and music community, and has been PURE's main facilitator since 2006. In 2003-2004, she was part of the first professional touring bellydance company in the world, the Bellydance Superstars.

Karim Nagi

Karim Nagi is a native Egyptian drummer, DJ, and folk dancer. He is the creator of Turbo Tabla, and has released two internationally distributed CDs of this unique brand of Arab House/Electronica. He performs and teaches Tahteeb Cane Dance, Dabka Line Dance, and Zikr Sufi Dance. Karim Nagi is a true crossover artist, uniting Cabaret and Tribal, Traditional and Modern, Ethnic and Urban styles.

Moria Chappell

World renowned belly dancer, Moria Chappell, graces stages around the world bringing the exquisite art of Tribal Fusion belly dance to its utmost in elegance, darkness, and intensity of expression. Her work is detailed and enigmatic heralding from a childhood of bohemian upbringing where value was placed on beauty and truth of artistic expression.

Pangia

PANGIA – A hypothetical land area believed to have once connected the landmasses of the southern hemisphere with those of the northern hemisphere. The name expresses their desire to play music from all around the world for everyone!

PAT OLSON

Pat Olson began studying the oud with John Bilezikjian in 1992 and has been performing World & Middle Eastern music ever since. He is an accomplished vocalist, guitarist, sound and lighting tech, having performed in many musicals and vocal jazz groups, as well as toured all over the world with a performing group demonstrating his many talents.

DENISE MANNION

Denise is the Keyboard & Zil player for "PANGIA" and was the co-founder of the original and award winning Troupe Mandala. She has presented quality Shows & Workshops sponsored by the Arts Councils in both Shasta and Siskiyou Counties, and teaches classes locally at College of the Siskiyou. Denise also teaches workshops along with Pat for the Rakkassah Festivals West, East & Spring Caravan.

THANK YOU

to all of our attendees, vendors & Stars for joining us and supporting the Tenth Year of Yaa Halla Y'all - A Gathering of the Stars.

We hope to see you again at Yaa Halla Y'all 2011!

May you all have safe trips home.

Princess Farhana

Internationally acclaimed dancer Princess Farhana has appeared in France, Switzerland, Belgium, Portugal, Egypt, Mexico and Canada, as well as all over the United Kingdom and across the USA, including Alaska and Hawaii. She is known for her exquisite technique-including her mind-boggling abdominal work and skills with balanced props. Her warmth, enthusiasm and adventurous spirit - on and off stage-captivate audiences and students alike.

Tamalyn Dallal

Tamalyn Dallal has taught and performed in 38 countries. In 1990, she started the non-profit arts organization "Mid Eastern Dance Exchange" in Miami Beach, through which she mentored thousands of dancers around the world. "40 Days and 1001 Nights", a book, documentary film, and music cd, is the story of how she lived in five Muslim countries for 40 days each. Ten percent of the proceeds from this project go to the "1001 Nights Fund" to help people in the countries she visited and beyond.

Virginia

Virginia is an award winning international performer and instructor of Raks Sharki (Bellydance), based in Miami, Florida. A powerful and exciting performer, a motivational and articulate instructor, Virginia has enchanted audiences around the world with her dynamic and soulful interpretation of Oriental Dance. Virginia has spanned the globe to diligently study with legendary masters to provide the most comprehensive dance curriculum available.

Aneena

Aneena, dancing for over 35 years and troupe director for over 30 years, and instructor at events all across the United States, is considered by multitudes to be THE expert on double veil dance. Recognized for her command of entertainment skills, Aneena not only dances with these amazing double veils, but also makes fabulous circular veils available for purchase at Aneena's Silk Veils.

Frank Farianaro

Frank, a life-long dancer, is Colorado's premiere male bellydancer. In 2009, Frank won Yaa Halla Y'all's the People's Choice Award Tribal/Alternative Star in Dallas, TX. Frank's current project is developing his signature Hammerhead Sharqi Dance Technique, a style of dance and dance instruction which focuses on artistic dance fusion, athletic body conditioning and new-age meditative practices

Jayna

Jayna has enjoyed a lifetime of dance experience. From jazz and ballet classes beginning at the age of nine to captain of the high school dance team, performing has been a constant focus in Jayna's life. Jayna has performed at Hollywood's Kodak Theatre with the Bellydance Superstars and Desert Roses, belly rolled with snakes at Universal Studio's premiere of "Mummy: The Ride," and celebrated the glorious union of marriage for Tori Spelling, while having a shimmy-off at her wedding shower in Beverly Hills.

Mia Sha'uri

Mia Sha'uri has amazing maturity, talent, diversity and discipline, which prepared her for her titles of Belly Dancer of the Universe 2008, Cabaret Professional Dancer at Yaa Halla, Y'all in 2009, and Belly Dancer of the Year 2010. Mia's wide range of professional talents include not only Cabaret, but also Tribal, Gypsy, Latin, and Bomba. These, coupled with her dynamic stage presence, make her a crowd favorite everywhere she performs.

Saqra

Saqra is a powerful dance artist and a master instructor. Her fluidity, grace, and technical skill is highlighted by her friendly demeanor and clear joy of the dance. Her clear method of breakdown and explanation and use of layered concepts make her workshops a challenge to all levels and an inspiring experience, without making them impossible for the newer dancer! She plays lead melodic on the keyboard for her dance band, Mediterranean Raqs Band.

Yasmine

Yasmine, who has an extensive background in ballet, tap, jazz, & Middle Eastern dance, is the studio owner of Mid-East Dance by Yasmine. She is well recognized for her dynamic and precise movements, which she carefully extends to her students - grooming them for their own spectacular performances. Yasmine's distinct performance style is often referred to as "Cutting Edge Cabaret".

Jamila Salimpour

In August 2009, at Yaa Halla Y'all in DFW, Texas:

The Isis Foundation proudly presented to Jamila Salimpour a Lifetime Achievement Award
- Master Innovator of Middle Eastern Dance -

In recognition of her contribution as an originator of, and her lifetime dedication to, the art of the Middle Eastern Dance movement in the United States,

for the original establishment of a Dance Vocabulary,
for the creation of Bal Anat and the precedent it set,
and for giving birth to a dance dynasty.

Her daughter, Suhaila, accepted the award for Jamila and shared heartfelt stories of her mother's life and career with the Yaa Halla, Y'all audience and also showed a wonderful DVD presentation highlighting Jamila's career as a dancer, director & instructor.

Yaa Halla Y'all Symposium on Belly Dance

The Question:

"How is Middle Eastern dance influenced by Pop and Rap music, and how do you feel about it?"

Witness this seventh historical panel symposium being filmed live at Yaa Halla, Y'all - 12:15pm, August 22, 2010, at the Grapevine Convention Center, Grapevine, Texas. All workshop attendees are cordially invited.

Panel members representing every conceivable area of this ever growing and most popular dance form will participate.

Representing Music, DVD/Videos, Film and Media will be:

Isis (Texas)

Mher Panossian (California)

Pangia - Patrick Olson and Denise Mannion (California)

Representing Performers and Instructors will be the following fabulous Award Winners:

Amaya (New Mexico)

Bozenka (Florida)

Moria (California)

Princess Farhana (California)

Tamalyn Dallal (Florida)
